Endorsements on British and British Indian Passports.

It is announced by the Government of India that all endorsements which are valid for the British Empire and which do not specifically mention Empire countries, may, in certain cases, no longer be considered valid. In their own interests travellers intending to visit Empire countries are advised to apply to the nearest passport issuing authority for re-endorsement of their passports for those Empire countries to which they actually intend to travel.

Attention is also drawn to Press Communique No. R. F. 585-40—Pol., dated 25th October 1940, which advises prospective travellers on account of war condition to apply in good time for travel facilities.

Secretary to the Resident.
